To all roses and sparrows in everyone's heart.

1. A rose tree

In my heart grows a rose tree, the branches illuminated by the sun of your love with warm, golden light.

The rose in my heart is opening its buds, the crystal water of love revives them.

Tweeting sparrow flies to the rose tree and descends to its nest.

The rose in my heart and the tweeting sparrow surrender to love.

2. The solar power

You are the energetic solar power, that makes my flower open, I surrender to your energy unconditionally,
I want to accept your light,
I open to your love.

I will love you with the light of my heart and with the wisdom of my soul,

I strive to come to you, we shall meet again somewhere, You are like an angel to me, all I want is good for you.

The rose of my heart blossoms only for you spreading its mystical scent, the light of my soul burns brightest to you, you set all my torches on fire.

3. The tree of love

On the tree of love blossom the amazing roses, there can be nothing more beautiful, than the sparkle in your eyes, the roses of love spread their enchanting scent, the infinity of stars open, the ship of our love sailing in the heady sea of roses, the starry path twinkles in front of our eyes, light years race by us lovers.

4. You

The sparkling stars of your eyes make the sea of my heart flow, moving in warmth,
to the beaches of infinity.

The happy glow of your smile makes the flowers of my soul blossom and the roses to scent.

My body moves with yours, your heart is in my heart, your soul is with my soul.

Poems of the alchemical process of love, that makes the rose of the heart open and brightens the light of the soul.
Is there a rose blossoming in your heart radiating its mysterious light around?
