

Peter Riffraff

Can there be good news or are all lies?

Where the world is going to?

Peter Riffraff

(Pseudonym)

Can there be good news or are all lies?

Where is the world going?

Where the world is going to?

And

The Fact and Fiction.

And

Fairy tales fantasy:

"Secret Society"

© 2020 Peter Riffraff

Publisher. Books on Demand GmbH, Helsinki., Finland

Manufacturer. Books on Demand GmbH, Norderstedt,
Germany

ISBN 978-952-804-245-7

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In the pages of the book, I tell imaginative stories. I've added the fairy tales fantasy. In this book, I tell a wide variety of stories that amaze me.

Yin and Yang are gods in ancient Chinese mythology.

Facts are not always synonymous with truth, and fiction is not always a mere fairy tale. There may be some teachings in the fairy tales. Facts, fiction, and fairy tales can be combined in such a way that they cannot always be clearly demarcated.

The cynic knows all the price, but not the value. (Oscar Wilde). This is what Finnish President Sauli Niinistö is telling Trump during his visit to Washington about a year ago.

Preface

If only we start from the beginning of the story of the universe and continue later today and future phenomena.

I will build this book in two parts. In the first part, I focus on “facts” and in the second part, I tell mere “fiction” without anything related to reality at the moment. Usually stories are told either as facts or fiction. Facts are usually perceived as truth and fiction that has been invented is usually a story about the future. However, there are many facts that are not true. Truth is usually a relative concept when the fiction of the future may or may not come true one day. That has happened before.

President Trump has introduced the FALSE NEWS concept. It is a truth that turns to a lie and a lie to the truth. There are several authoritarian rulers in the world, some are dictators, others are just narcissists who do all kinds of stupidity, alone, but the real ‘beast’ is a supporters of these.

If supporters were able to set boundaries and keep the ruler in check, they could only become petty criminals. So they get what they want.

When it comes to raising balanced parents for children, young children should be set limits and punished gently and lovingly if children and people do something inappropriate.

Spare the rod and spoil the child. These crazy leaders and their supporters are apparently the so-called "Without discipline." The ruler sums up the stupidity of his supporters. The consequence and disadvantage is that citizens are divided into different groups. It leads to different estimates and eventually even to civil war or other conflicts.

Someone has said, "Only without a doubt can you find the truth." If we deny the doubt, we are at the same time preventing the search for the truth.

Someone else has said, "Little teases the seekers of truth," but the finder of truth is full of anger and stupidity. "Anger reveals the level of thought.

The old statement is also, "The speaker of truth has no place to sleep." So a little white lie can sometimes be better than the raw truth.

It is also said: Truth does not burn in fire.

We in the West often wonder how many people in the world have become terrorists.

For many decades, the scourge has been and continues to be Islamist terrorist organizations such as ISIS, AL-GAIDA and so on. There are many names for them. But they have a common terrorist activity.

However, a clear distinction must be made between normal Islam and Islamist terrorism. They are quite different things, although Islamists also cast a shadow over the religion of Islam.

It has proven surprisingly easy to get people brainwashed, all it takes is massive lying and manipulation, making supporters believe everything the “great leader” says, even if others try to undo them.

Trump also succeeded in creating the Trump Party through perennial lies and manipulation that proponents seek to capture the entire Republican party for themselves.

Fortunately, this did not happen because not everyone believed Trump’s lies.

I think the party can recover if it does to separate brainwashed members.

It was amazing to see how many of Trump's supporters were armed and covered their faces in a public place during a peaceful demonstration. They looked exactly like Islamist terrorists willing to commit terrorist acts. Trump himself continued to encourage these stupid people. The identity of these people must be established and condemned as a terrorist, Expressing a peaceful opinion is a right protected by law, but if it involves individuals who commit a crime, such as insulting the property of others and robbing shops or doing other evil, their identities must be clarified and held accountable and compensated in accordance with.

I hope Joe Biden and Kamala Harris are able to create a united and trusting country. I also hope they return the honor to those Trump took from them with defamation and lies. Defamation is a crime against humanity unless its allegations can be clearly substantiated at the same time.

To be or not to be the beginnin of The Universe.

I watched a program on TV: ( The Universe ) It's a long and multi-part series. In the second part, the researcher or actor held a small table tennis ball between his fingers and explained;

From this little sphere, the whole universe was born from one big explosion. But he didn't tell me how this the ball was born. So that little ball couldn't be a "origin" to anything. Yes, it also has some beginning of development. So was the egg the first or the chicken? Admittedly, the Kalevala states that the universe was born of a bird's egg.

A much earlier explanation was where:

"At first there was nothing, no time, no space, no material and no energy." However, it happened in absolute non-existence in an absolutely surprisingly large explosion and led to the birth of the universe.

Perhaps the researchers themselves noticed this, the explanation was so badly flawed that it was rejected and replaced with this modern table tennis ball theory.

I think this book can be interesting and maybe even important to Americans because I look at it from the outside, allowing me to see things differently than in the United States.

Peter Riffraff is a pseudonym because there are numerous tyrannical terrorist states in the world that can see me as a major threat to their governments. So they can threaten my life. In the book, I also take a critical look at what is happening in the Mediterranean and the Middle East.

English is not my native language, so there may be a few typos in this book. Sorry.

November, 2020

